NORTH CAROLINA ASSOCIATION OF HEALTH UNDERWRITERS PRESENTS
“SPARK PLUG AWARD”

Jeff Cloer received the “Spark Plug Achievement Award” at the North Carolina Association of Health Underwriters (NCAHU) meeting held August 9, 2013 at the Sunset Trail Golf Resort in Sunset Beach, NC. The NCAHU “Spark Plug” Award recognizes a member who makes significant contributions, performs outstanding service, and has the “Spark” to go beyond what is required.

Jeff is currently serving as the Professional Development Chairperson for the North Carolina Association of Health Underwriters (NCAHU). In addition, he has served as President of the Western North Carolina Association of Health Underwriters (WNCAHU) from 2012-2013 and the Treasurer from 2010-2012. During his tenure as President of WNCAHU, the Chapter won the National Association of Health Underwriters’ (NAHU) Pacesetter Award. Jeff has won WNCAHU’s “2013 Member of the Year Award” and “2011 Spark Plug Award”.

Jeff Cloer is an eight generation native of Franklin, NC where he manages the Life and Health department at Wayah Insurance Group. He and his wife Brenda have two children.

North Carolina Association of Health Underwriters (NCAHU) is a chapter of the National Association of Health Underwriters (NAHU). The National Association of Health Underwriters represents more than 100,000 licensed health insurance agents, brokers, consultants, and benefit professionals who provide insurance for millions of Americans. NAHU is the only national association working solely on behalf of health insurance professionals.
