The National Association of Health Underwriters Presents the Michael D. Gray Award

Chris Harrison recently received NAHU's Michael D. Gray Award at the National Association of Health Underwriter's Annual Convention in Las Vegas, NV. The Michael D. Gray Award honors the NAHU member who contributes the highest amount of money, in a calendar year, to the Health Underwriters Political Action Committee.

Chris Harrison has dedicated more than 20 years to the success and longevity of the insurance industry. He has served as President for the North Carolina Association of Health Underwriters (NCAHU) and the Sandhills Association of Health Underwriters (SAHU).

In addition to involvement at the state and local levels, Harrison has been active on the national level serving as Region 5 Vice President and as a member of the NAHU National Board of Trustees. He remains very active in the legislative process and works closely with our legislative leaders in both North Carolina and Washington, DC.

Harrison is president of EbenConcepts Company, a national brokerage agency, where he manages more than 25 offices in five states. He has extensive knowledge and expertise in the health care industry including the design and administration of self-funded group medical plans, Cafeteria Plans, COBRA compliance, as well as consulting on all size groups employer-sponsored medical plans.

A native of Greensboro NC, Chris Harrison is an Army veteran. After his discharge and completing his college degree, Chris moved to Fayetteville NC where he lives today.
