NORTH CAROLINA ASSOCIATION OF HEALTH UNDERWRITERS IS BIG WINNER AT NATIONAL CONVENTION

The North Carolina Association of Health Underwriters (NCAHU) recently received ten awards at the National Association of Health Underwriters' (NAHU) 83rd Annual Convention and Exhibition in Atlanta. Thirty three people represented North Carolina on June 23-26.

NCAHU was presented the Landmark Award for the state association's excellence in service to its members, the industry and public. In addition, NCAHU was recognized for its Blue Ribbon of Excellence. This award is part of NAHU's Chapter Certification Program, which is an ongoing program that recognizes excelling chapters throughout the calendar year.

NCAHU's local Charlotte, Triad, and Western North Carolina chapters garnered the Pacesetter Award. The criteria for receiving this award includes attendance at national and regional meetings, chapter management, hosting local meetings and events, communications, membership activities and growth, public service projects, media relations efforts, and continuing education.

In addition, NCAHU was recognized for the Website Award. The Coastal and Triangle chapters, also, received this award.

NCAHU garnered the Media Relations Award that honors states for outstanding achievements in using the media to reach out to their members, the industry and the public. The Triad chapter (TAHU), also, received this award for the sixth consecutive time.

The National Association of Health Underwriters represents 100,000 professional health insurance agents and brokers who provide insurance for millions of Americans. North Carolina Association of Health Underwriters and its seven local chapters are members of the National Association of Health Underwriters.
